Sussex Midweek English Language Training Sessions

Expectations down Appreciation up Matt Jones

An unconventional look at how we can reduce stress and pressure whilst increasing enjoyment and satisfaction in the language school environment. This talk offers advice on efficient planning, material selection, teacher-student rapport, attitudes to discipline and observations.

Matt is a fully-Delta qualified teacher with 8 years' experience of teaching both abroad and at home. After delivering a well-received SDoSA summer training session on error correction and a previous SussexmELTs session on concept checking, he is now spending more time on teacher training.
