Sussex Midweek English Language Teaching Sessions

Putting LIFE into reading lessons

John Hughes

Teachers want text that is authentic, challenging and content-rich but at the linguistic level which does not deter the learner. Students will respond to text that reflects their real life interests. This workshop looks at resolving these conflicts and trying some practical activities to help learners confront extensive and cognitively demanding reading from National Geographic magazine.

John has been a teacher for over 20 years in various locations and has also been a DoS and head of teacher training in a UK school. He now runs training workshops online and face-to-face. He has [co]authored many Heinle Cengage Learning books such as Spotlight on FCE; Practical Grammar levels 1,2 &3; Success with BEC Vantage and Total Business 2. He has recently worked on two new course books: Life [GE] and Aspire [for secondary schools].
