Sussex Midweek English Language Training Sessions

Check your Concept Matt Jones

Can we be more responsible for the concepts we teach? Concepts differ across languages so what techniques can we adopt to establish and check them efficiently? This session will look at formulation of effective concept checks as well as working on strengthening concept, synonym selection and clearing up confusing terms.

Matt is a fully-Delta qualified teacher with 8 years' experience of teaching both abroad and at home. After delivering a well-received SDoSA summer training session on error correction, he is now spending more time on teacher training.
